

The Great Eagle Feather Award Program

The following are suggested projects braves can perform to earn feather awards. Some projects are for individual brave efforts but most are for both big and little braves. Some projects are dependant upon tribe activities. By sharing of efforts, a closer relationship is formed among all tribe members and the parent/child.

1. WHITE WITH RED TIP: awarded when brave can recite a tribal ritual, i.e. opening and closing prayer, Y-Guide pledge, aims.
2. WHITE WITH BLUE TIP: awarded for bringing a new brave into the program.
3. BLUE & BLACK STRIPE: awarded when all other brave names are known and can be recited.
4. GREEN WITH WHITE TIP: awarded when a major piece of tribal equipment has been completed, i.e. tom-tom, property chest. All tribe braves must participate.
5. YELLOW WITH RED TIP: awarded to each brave for the display of tribal handicraft at a public or Guide function.
6. BROWN & WHITE STRIPE: awarded when brave has attended three Guide sponsored functions, i.e. campout, bowling, hiking.
7. RED WITH BLACK TIP: for perfect attendance at regular scheduled meetings during one year.
8. GREEN WITH BLACK TIP: for completing a parent/child Indian handicraft which is not a meeting project. It may be personal or for tribal use.
9. YELLOW WITH BLACK TIP: awarded when parent/child have visited another tribe and report back to thier tribe on the event.
10. WHITE WITH BROWN TIP: awarded when a parent/child have completed a nature project together and display and explain it at a tribal meeting.
